

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Herman Greeder, 17, son of Milwaukee physician, took $200 from father's safe. Came here with James Murphy. Found sleeping in park broke.

Mrs. Roxie McKeehan, Imperial, Cal., en route to Indiana, missing. Police searching.

Hoge's saloon, 2159 Belmont av., robbed. $29.90.

Attempted robbery of Alferd Miller's story, 2349 Milwaukee av., stopped. Robbers fled when owner showed flight.

Miss Merle Reed, nurse, Lake View Hospital, and Joseph W. North, 1840 Cuyler av., reported wed.

Schoolteachers to be placed on coronor's juries. Will help in safety first campaign.

John Polzin, 1926 N. Winchester av., tried to act as peacemaker in quarrel. Died from wound received Sunday. Five suspects held.

Benj. Coglar, 1316 S. Racine av., thrown from street car. Head bruised.

Mary Goss, 17, 1533 Nelson st., missing. Weighs 175 pounds. Believe sensitiveness over stoutness cause.

Fifteen hurt when street cars collided at W. Division st.

M. J. Real, 49, 5123 Aberdeen st., badly injured. Knocked from wagon by street car.

Forty-seven autoists arrested for glaring headlights.

Thomas Hoyne, 17, son of state's attorney, and Miss Luferry Low, 18, 1357 W. 47th st., rescued by lifesavers. Canoe overturned.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham Chandler wanted to build bungalow on roof of five-story building, 33 Bellevue pl. Permit refused.

Harry Meyers, 5, 1020 W. 103d st., killed by auto. J. E. McMackin, driver, held.

World tour planned by aldermen. Will visit many cities. To study railway and harbor facilities.

Anna Zelonerski, 2, 1006 N. Ashland av., killed by ice wagon. Hansa Christianson, driver, held under $10,000 bond.

August Stoll and son, 1415 Bond st., injured. N-W. "L" hit wagon.

Chicago Theological Seminary has joined University of Chicago.

Police to attack new pension system. Deny making large collections. Changes in new law sought.

Samuel Winternitz, auctioneer, 79 W. Monroe st., and Wm. Fuchs, 5215 W. 22d pl., arrested. Charged with assaulting Benj. J. Rosenthal.

10,000 heard band concert at Grant Park yesterday. Next concert Saturday evening.

Mother of Theresa Hollander told of finding daughter's body at Petras murder trial.

Hazel Pollock, music student, freed of robbery charge. Victims pleaded for leniency. Sent to sanitarium.

Nourse bigamy trial near end. Case hinges on legality of divorce.

Revocation of dramshop licenses for 250 places in county demanded by Law and Order League. Reformers seeking "blind pigs."

Wm. Roehr, 20, given six months in Bridewell, April 16, for non-support, paroled. Mother-in-laws warned they would be fined if they interfered again in young couple's affairs.

Sane Fourth proclamation issued by mayor. Discharge of fireworks prohibited.

Six indicted for jury fixing. Court clerk, lawyer and 4 others to face conspiracy charge.

Edw. Pearson, Wm. Meyers and Wm. Grant, 125 E. Illinois st., identified as hold-up men by Edw. Schmidt, 406 N. Clark st.

$2,600 raised by flower day for Francis Willard Hospital.

New beach planned for 79th st. by special park commission.

Avery Coonley, member of County Board, succeeded Geo. Cook as